As early as the nineteen seventies Ton was taking a keen interest in photography. After discovering the work of Jan Saudek in the nineties he decided no longer to listen to the opinions of other people. Instead he chose to follow his own way and ideas. This resulted in an unusual and surreal approach to his photography. Ton creates with his models colorful scenes vibrating with a subtle emotional radiance. In contrast, his black and whites are disturbing. www.tondirven.com	69	Shaman drums. Go on a journey within yourself through the sound and dance experience of shaman drums.
